

APPENDIX A – TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE ORDER

Recochem Inc. or its affiliates (“Recochem”) agree to purchase and Seller (as defined in the PO) agrees to supply the goods (the “Goods”) and/or services (“Services”) set out in the purchase order (“PO”) to which these terms and conditions (“Terms”) are attached, subject to the following:

- 1. Recochem. The affiliates of Recochem include all Recochem’s named companies around the world as well as affiliates operating under the following names: KOST, Adam’s Polishes, B&B Blending, Paint Over Rust, International Coolant Formulations, Luyten, Red Rocks, Ultra Clear, Auto-Chem and Napierville Refineries.
- 2. Acceptance of Order. These Terms, the PO and any attachments or schedules attached thereto (collectively, the “Order”) constitute the full and complete agreement between the parties in relation to the purchase by Recochem of the Goods and Services from Seller. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the present PO and its Terms, the Seller shall transmit to Recochem a written acknowledgement of the present PO which will act as the acceptance of the present PO and of all of its Terms by the Seller. No terms and conditions of any offer, letter, contract, purchase order, invoice or other document submitted or issued by Seller in connection with this Order shall amend, add to, vary or modify these Terms. Any modification of the Terms will be deemed refused by Recochem unless there is a formal acceptance in writing by Recochem. Failing the receipt, by Recochem, of the written acknowledgement of the Seller, the delivery, even partial, of the Goods or Services, will be considered as the acceptance of the PO, including all its Terms, by the Seller. If a written agreement signed by both parties is in existence covering the purchase of Goods and Services (“Master Agreement”), covered hereby, the terms and conditions of said contract shall prevail to the extent they are inconsistent with these Terms.
- 3. Cancellation and Changes. Recochem may, at any time, upon notice to Seller, without cause and without liability to Recochem, cancel or change the Order, in whole or part, prior to shipment. The Order may not be otherwise amended unless there is a written document signed by both parties. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Terms, Recochem may terminate this Order immediately, without liability, and without limiting any of Recochem’s other rights or remedies, upon written notice to Seller if: (a) Seller is in breach of any of its obligations under these Terms; (b) Seller is in breach of any of its representations or warranties; (c) an action or claim against Seller may, in Recochem’s reasonable opinion, harm Seller’s continued business operations; (d) Seller becomes insolvent or bankrupt; or (e) either party is unable to carry out its obligations under the Order by reason of a force majeure event, meaning any delay or state of affairs beyond the control of a party which causes either party to be unable to fulfill, or to be delayed or restricted in the fulfillment of, an obligation.
- 4. Prices. The Goods and Services covered by these Terms are those specifically identified in the PO. The prices shall be deemed to include any charges and expenses related to packing, crating or cartage, storage, transportation, handling, unloading, customs, installation, insurance, brokerage fees, freight, duties and other related fees. Unless expressly provided in the PO, all prices are in Canadian dollars.
- 5. Payment. Recochem shall pay Seller the prices for the Goods and/or Services as set out in the PO, or if not specified in the PO, within sixty (60) days following the later of: (i) acceptance by Recochem of Goods and/or Services under the Order; or (ii) receipt by Recochem of an undisputed invoice. Payment or any part thereof may be withheld by Recochem if, in Recochem’s sole discretion: (i) Seller has not fulfilled its obligations under the Order; or (ii) any portion of the Goods and/or Services are damaged, lost or otherwise not accepted by Recochem. Seller’s invoices to Recochem must charge applicable taxes on any Goods or Services supplied to Recochem. Applicable taxes and sales tax registration number must be shown in a separate line item in any invoice submitted to Recochem. Recochem may set off, deduct, or credit any amounts owed to it by Seller, or otherwise make a reduction, deduction, withholding or abatement, against amounts it owed to Seller under the Order. Without limiting the foregoing, Recochem may deduct from payments otherwise due to Seller, such amounts as Recochem may be obligated to withhold under any law, including, but not limited to, the Income Tax Act (Canada), and may remit any such amounts that relate to income tax, GST, HST or other tax to the relevant governmental authority. Seller acknowledges that Recochem may make such payments from time to time and that such payment shall reduce Recochem’s financial obligation to pay Seller under this Agreement accordingly.
- 6. Duty Drawback. Seller hereby transfers to Recochem all Canadian Goods and Services Tax (GST) and/or customs duty drawback rights related to the Goods (including rights developed by substitution and rights that may be acquired from Seller’s suppliers) which Seller can transfer to Recochem. Seller will inform Recochem of the existence of any such rights and, upon Recochem’s request, will supply Recochem with such documents as may be required to obtain such drawbacks, including waivers when required.
- 7. Shipping. Seller shall pack, mark and prepare the Goods for shipment as set out in the PO and in a manner which will prevent damage or deterioration, comply with applicable laws and regulations and conform to Recochem’s and carrier’s instructions and requirements. Goods must be shipped on CHEP or similar pallet quality, with packing slips attached. Seller shall provide any applicable material safety data sheets and other relevant documentation, including BOL (Bill of Lading), certificate of compliance and certificate of analysis. All shipping documents must include Recochem’s part number, PO number and description. Goods must show Recochem’s part number. Scale ticket and wash ticket are required for any bulk receiving. The net quantity and unit of measure must be indicated on the scale ticket in a readable way. If the Goods are shipped via rail, the railcar reporting marks must be indicated on the BOL, certificate of analysis, invoice and other relevant documentation.
- 8. Delivery. Time is of the essence in respect of the Order. Except as otherwise provided in the PO, the delivery terms shall be DDP (Incoterms 2020) to the delivery location set out in the PO. Seller warrants that the Goods and/or Services will be delivered in accordance with delivery dates specified in the PO. Delivery appointments shall be arranged at least 48 hours before the delivery date specified or delivery may be refused. Seller shall notify Recochem in writing of any actual or anticipated delays immediately upon discovery. In the event of any delay, Recochem may, at its option, terminate all or any portion of the Goods and/or Services being supplied under the Order by giving written notice to Seller, without further liability on the part of Recochem. The Seller is liable for loss and additional charge if delivery of the Goods is delayed beyond the schedule provided under this PO. The Seller shall, upon Recochem’s request, suspend shipment and delivery of the Goods and all work and operations herein for such period as Recochem may request at no additional cost to Recochem.
- 9. Inspection and Acceptance. Any Goods and/or Services are subject to inspection and acceptance by Recochem, its agents or its clients. Recochem reserves the right to reject and refuse acceptance of any Goods or Services that are considered by Recochem defective or not in accordance with any specifications (including any specifications made available to Seller by Recochem) or documentation provided by Seller. Goods not accepted by Recochem will be returned to Seller at Seller’s risk and expense. Services not accepted by Recochem shall be remedied or re-performed at Seller’s expense. Payment shall not: (a) constitute acceptance of the Goods or Services; (b) impair Recochem’s right to inspect; or (c) limit any of Recochem’s remedies. Recochem, its agents, its clients and/or its consultants, shall have access at all reasonable times to the plant and premises of the Seller. Inspection and/or acceptance by Recochem, its agents or its clients does not relieve Seller of any warranties or obligations hereunder. No payment will be made to the Seller in respect of any of the Goods or Services which are rejected after inspection.
- 10. Title and Risk of Loss. Notwithstanding anything else in this Order, title to and risk of loss of the Goods will not pass to Recochem until the Goods have been delivered to the destination specified in the PO and Recochem has inspected and accepted the Goods or on payment of the Goods by Recochem, whichever occurs first.
- 11. Substitutions. Seller shall not provide substitute goods as and for the Goods stipulated in the Order without the prior written consent of Recochem.
- 12. Representations and Warranties. Seller represents and warrants that: (a) it has all right, title and interest necessary for the provision of the Goods and proper performance of the Services; (b) there are no patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets, or other industrial or intellectual property rights or any other rights of any third parties restricting the sale, use, repair or replacement of the Goods or any part thereof or the provision of the Services and the

If Seller fails to correct any nonconformity to the satisfaction of Recochem, Recochem may reject or revoke acceptance and either: (a) purchase goods and/or services in substitution for those rejected and Seller will be liable to Recochem for any costs for procuring such similar goods or services; (b) correct Seller’s nonconforming Goods or Services by the most expeditious means available, the costs of which shall be borne by Seller; or (c) retain the nonconforming Goods or Services and an equitable adjustment reducing the PO price to reflect the diminished value of such nonconforming Goods or Services will be made to the Order. Seller’s liability hereunder shall extend to all damages caused by the breach of any of the foregoing representations, warranties and requirements, including incidental damages, such as removal, inspection, costs of return or warehousing.
